Mission in South America?

All saints has a strong tradition of support for worldwide mission, but one of the areas where we are weak is in South America.

I am writing to ask if anyone is interested in praying for and generally supporting mission in South America, specifically Bolivia.

If you are interested, please will you contact me within the next month.

Many thanks.

James

■Please pray for the 17 young people and five leaders going out to Caminul Felix on 5 July. Pray for good team dynamics,

HELP BUY A NEW CAR FOR PHIL AND SARAH CANDY

Phil and Sarah Candy live in Switzerland with their three children, Katie, Esther & Nathalie, where Phil works for Medair, a Christian humanitarian agency dedicated to the relief of human suffering in some of the world's most remote and devastated places.

They are looking to purchase a new car, the best option being a 4x4 version of the 2010 Volkswagen Sharan people carrier. They would like to acquire this by the end of August in readiness for the winter.

They are our Mission Partners, so it would be great if we could help them with this specific need.

I am inviting All Saints to join with me in making a contribution. If you would like to help, please use the yellow envelopes (on the table at the back of the church), and mark them "Candy's car". Many thanks.

James

NEW YOUTH PASTOR

I am delighted to say that the PCC has approved the appointment of a new Youth Pastor from September 2017. Jonny Payne (pictured) will be joining the team at Lindfield in September to continue and build on Chris Steynor's work.

Jonny, a young man in his mid-twenties hails from Gravesend in Kent. Brought up in a Christian family, he has felt a strong calling to Christian work with teenagers and young adults. He has had experience of youth work with Kent County Council and he has an honours degree in theology from Oak Hill College, specialising in youth and children's ministry. He had a Sunday placement for three years at St Luke's Hampstead where he worked extensively with younger teenagers. Jonny has an American fiancée called Carmen. He enjoys following and playing a variety of sports, especially cricket and football, and has an interest in history, politics, current affairs and theology.

Please pray for Jonny as he moves to join us sometime in August. James
